IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE

FIRST APPEAL NO.1453 OF 2006

United India Insurance Co.Ltd. Appellant vs.
Balkrishan B. Chikhale & ors. Opponents

Mr.H.G.Misar for the appellant.

CORAM : R. M. LODHA &
A.S.BAGGA, JJ.

DATED : 27th June, 2006

P.C.

We heard Mr.H.G.Misar, Advocate for the appellant-Insurer.

2. The Advocate for the Insurer submitted that the Tribunal did not follow the settled norms for the computation of compensation. In other words, he submitted that quantum of compensation is under challenge in this appeal. We asked the Advocate for the Insurer as to whether any permission was granted by the Tribunal to the insurer to contest the claim on merits. The Advocate for the Insurer answered in the negative. In this view of the matter, the appeal cannot be entertained as the Insurer has limited statutory defences which do not include contest on quantum of the compensation.

3. The appeal is liable to be dismissed and is dismissed in limine.
